

HOLLYWOOD BOUND!

Kate Cowley, a Year 11 student at Ravenswood, after appearing as Judy Turner in A Chorus Line at the Willoughby Theatre Company, has been selected to perform at The Choreographer's Ball in Hollywood which is to be held at The Key Club on 28 October 2009. This is Hollywood's biggest commercial dance event in which Casting Agents, Producers, International Directors, Choreographers and major US Recording artists gather to view the work of young upcoming artists. This will be the very first time Australians have ever performed at such an event.

Kate is one of 18 dancers selected from over 500 applicants who will be given this once in a lifetime opportunity to not only perform at this prestigious event, but to train first hand with industry professionals at Millennium dance studios and with Debbie Reynolds in Los Angeles.

Kate has also been lined up for an exclusive interview with Tony Selznick at the MSA Dance Agency, the largest, most reputable agent in the USA.

