2016 Term 1, Week 4 – 19 February 2016

Principal's Message

It has been a momentous and memorable week for our Ravenswood community. A time of looking forward with excitement, a sense of shared vision and purpose, as well as a time of looking back and reflecting on our school's past in paying tribute to those who have helped develop Ravenswood into the magnificent school it is today.

On Monday I was thrilled and deeply humbled to be commissioned as Ravenswood’s tenth Principal. The Commissioning Service was held in our gymnasium, which was transformed for the occasion. The ceremony was conducted with great dignity and reverence by Reverend Kath Merrifield, Executive Director of Uniting Mission and Education (Synod of NSW/ACT) and by our School Chaplain, Jon Humphries. A number of distinguished guests, including Principals of Independent Schools in Sydney and also from Adelaide, joined with members of the School Council, students and staff, family and friends to be part of this important occasion. The musical performances of our choir and orchestra were beautiful – including the singing of the Aaronic blessing, conducted by Mr Dean MacRae, which was so stirring. Mr Michael Varecka composed absolutely superb musical pieces for the processional and recessional especially for this occasion. I was delighted to have an opportunity to deliver an address and you may wish to view this at https://vimeo.com/155924561.

I felt quite overwhelmed with joy as we processed out after the ceremony and I walked up the centre aisle past all our girls downstairs and up in the gallery, who were warmly smiling and clapping encouragingly. To be able to be a part of their lives and to have the opportunity to make a positive contribution to them as Principal is truly a privilege. As the recessional of staff continued behind me I had the wonderful opportunity to wait and greet each and every one of our amazing staff at the door; it occurred to me that we are already a strong team – united in our commitment to our inspirational girls. Following the event we gathered for morning tea on the Peace Lawn and I could not have felt more proud of our school. It was a beautiful and memorable experience.

I am very conscious of the honour and responsibility conferred on me in my commissioning, following in the inspirational steps of those nine principals who have gone before me.

I wish to acknowledge the unique and outstanding contribution of each of them, and especially wish to pay tribute to Miss Phyllis Evans, the Principal of Ravenswood from 1962-1986, who sadly passed away recently and whose funeral was held on Tuesday. Miss Evans, it has been said, was determined that Ravenswood would be a school...
'second to none' with a strong Christian focus and a curriculum that enabled the girls to move into any career path they choose – wonderful and important aspirations for our school. A requiem mass was held for Miss Evans at St James' Church in the city. I was privileged to attend this with a number of members of the Senior Leadership Team, our School Captain and Vice Captains, as well as our choir who provided much of the music for the funeral. It was particularly moving that when the girls sang Kindle the Flame, which was chosen as the Ravenswood Anthem by Miss Evans, many of those in attendance, including many Old Girls, spontaneously joined in the singing of our school song.

Old Girl and noted historian Marjorie Binns who wrote Ravenswood – Educating girls 1901-2001 concluded her moving eulogy for Miss Evans with the thought that she would have hoped for bold and imaginative leadership for this new era. This resonated strongly with me in terms of my own goals as Principal as we venture into our bright future together.

There have been so many other special events this week that have been an absolute delight including the induction of Year 6 students as leaders, the Year 7 Father/Daughter Breakfast, the Junior School Swimming Carnival and our RPA Prayer Group who kindly visited the school this morning to pray for our students, staff, community and school as a whole, especially as we commence a new and exciting chapter at Ravenswood. I also enjoyed my first official meeting with School Council and I am delighted to be working with them on plans that strive to ensure this school continues to go from strength to strength and our students and staff fulfil their potential and flourish. I look forward to sharing our vision with you as our plans evolve.

The Ravenswood Anthem exhorts us to 'Kindle the Flame... uphold this torch of light! Honour the Name that guides our lives aright ... (growing stronger together in faith, hope and love), So, shall we live to bless these walls, These fields, this treasured place!'

It is my goal that a Ravenswood education does indeed kindle a flame within our girls so that they will one day go out from here, this treasured place, to live lives of meaning and purpose that light the world!

Mrs Anne Johnstone

Chaplain's Message

This week, we commissioned Principal, Mrs Anne Johnstone as tenth principal of Ravenswood. During the Service, we heard the passage about where Jesus identifies what he believed the greatest commandment to be (Matthew 22: 34-40). Being Jesus, he answered the question in his own way. Aside from loving God with our whole being – body, mind, strength and soul, he added that the second 'Greatest Commandment' was to love our neighbour as our self. This idea of loving others as ourselves, is perhaps deliberately ambiguous. Does it mean at the same time as we love others, or to love others in the same way as we love ourselves, or might it mean both or something different?

This week, as I walked up the street in front of the newly created SciTech Centre I was prompted to think about this reading, as I looked with gratitude and appreciation at the roses that grow in the garden. I make it part of my spiritual discipline to stop and smell the roses – and I don't mean figuratively but literally to stop and smell the roses. These only have the faintest scent but that does not detract from their beauty.

What have roses got to do with the commissioning of Mrs Johnstone or the scripture about loving others as yourself, some might be wondering? Perhaps, little or maybe a lot. To love others requires self-giving, at least in terms of the biblical word 'agape' which is translated love. Giving of ourselves for others is important but sometimes we need replenishing and restoration of our spiritual, emotional and physical resources. So there is a need to stop, rest and re-create moments of renewal. So stopping and smelling roses reminds me to do this. It helps me be reminded of the tradition of the Sabbath or the times Jesus went alone to pray. Sometimes we need to love ourselves by nurturing our wellbeing in order to offer our best in love to others. So in this season of Lent, where tradition has us giving up something to help us focus on the spiritual roots of Easter, maybe we can give up some time to stop and smell the roses. It's something to think about. God Bless.

Boarding

After a weekend spent with the Boarders enjoying our first closed weekend together, it has been very difficult to concentrate on anything else. The endless laughter, dancing, lip syncing and camaraderie has been wonderful to be a part of. Our busy weekend provided a number of opportunities for our Boarders to individually shine and use their character strengths, particularly in open-mindedness, teamwork, curiosity and interest in the world, honesty, equity and humor, just to name a few.

I would like to personally thank our 2016 Activities Captains for their outstanding leadership in working with me to create a wonderful weekend.

This week, we also welcomed Principal, Mrs Anne Johnstone and a number of our Senior Leadership Team, teaching and support staff into our home for a tour of the Ravenswood Residential College (RRC) and afternoon tea. The girls were very proud to have the staff visit and enjoyed the opportunity to showcase where they live during term time in our special community.

News

Congratulations to all our Year 6 Leaders

On Tuesday morning, the Junior School enjoyed an inspirational Chapel Service, as we inducted our Year 6 students into their leadership positions for 2016. It was a thrill for the girls to have their leadership badges presented to them by Mrs Anne Johnstone, Principal, Mrs Terrie Jones, Deputy Principal – Head of Learning Innovation, and Mr David Garner, Deputy Principal – Head of Secondary School. As always, Mrs Cheryl Bailey was there to proudly read out the names of all our Year 6 Leaders and the positions they will passionately fulfil.

As this year progresses, additional leadership opportunities will be presented to our Year 6 cohort. In addition, all Year 6 students will lead the Junior School during our Peer Support program in Term 3. This experience will highlight the resilience, adaptability and enthusiasm of our Year 6 Leaders.
Reverend Humphries demonstrated the power of leadership, both positive and 'not so positive'. The Junior School students were articulate when giving responses during the Service, describing negative leadership qualities, as opposed to more positive and productive leadership qualities. It was a great learning experience for all.

A reminder to all our Junior School parents – our Chapel Service takes place each Tuesday morning, starting at 8.25am. You are always welcome to come and join the Junior School girls and enjoy this special time of our week.

Mr David Freeman, Ms Georgia Poulos and Mrs Karla Russo, Year 6 Teachers
